Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you so very much again for the award of the Career Intelligence Medal. I was very appreciative of receiving it from you and [REDACTED] as the two Agency employees with the longest service in American intelligence. I believe we have built quite an institution during our careers which will continue to contribute to our country for a long time to come. Thank you for sharing this career with me.

Sincerely,

/s/ W. E. Colby

Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you so very much for awarding me the Career Intelligence Medal. I was very moved to have this done by the two Agency employees with the longest service in American intelligence, going back even further than my own. I think we have together built a great institution which I am sure will make a permanent contribution to our country in the future. Thank you again for sharing this career with me.

Sincerely,

W. E. Colby
